

GENERAL LABORER

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

Our General Laborers are responsible for performing a variety of physical labor tasks to assist with the operations at a construction site. They assist with ensuring the whole project tasks are followed through on and accomplished as assigned and expected.

- Prepares and cleans construction sites by cleaning obstacles and hazards before, during and after projects
- Loading and unloading various equipment and materials for a construction site
- Taking down and building structures and scaffolding
- Assist with digging trenches, backfilling holes and compacting earth
- Operating and directing machinery and heavy equipment
- Following instructions from supervisors and following through on construction plans
- Assist craft workers
- Perform site clean-up
- Professionally and safely perform job duties

